Walking City Tour Information

06 June 2026

Overview of the Nice tour:

Le Vieux Nice or the « Old Nice » is the iconic district where the Italian art and architecture, reminiscent of the city's volatile past, remain still very tangible. When I walk in the old Nice I always remember the feeling that I had discovering this wonderful city! Coming from Paris where I lived for 13 years "Le vieux Nice" appears to me as a little Italian village with its narrow streets, the buildings painted in pastel colours, the ice cream shops, the Italian restaurants . . . That was just a surprising, wonderful discovery for a mediterranean person like me, that used to live in the gray, beige and black colours of the cold Paris. I remember that I thought : " why didn't I moved here before ?" Strolling around, you'll discover the ever-unpredictable history of Nice, a city, by its external appearance with no or very little equivalent in the rest of France. The narrow streets of the congested Old City center—a legacy from its medieval origins—and its typical architecture with mixed styles.

Itinerary

- Meeting point near the Apollon Fountain in Place Massena.
- From there, we will walk to the Opera house and the flower markets, where, if you like, you can taste some of the food specialties
- For the next stop, we'll go to have a look at the beautiful Promenade. Strolling around the narrow streets, we'll see the Cathedral of Saint Reparata, the "Palais Lascaris," and the memorial to the niçoise heroine, Catherine Segurane.
- We end the tour at Place Garibaldi, the Italian hero.
